UK Organisers: B'nai B'rith UK

B'nai B'rith UK was established in 1910. It is part of an international organisation founded in 1843, which advocates for global Jewry and champions the cause of human rights. B'nai B'rith is active in 59 countries with representation at the UN, UNESCO and the EU.

B'nai B'rith UK is a cross-communal organisation whose aim is to bring Jewish people together to promote tolerance, strengthen the Jewish Community, combat racial and religious prejudice, to help the less fortunate and the disadvantaged.

Local groups provide innovative cultural, educational and social programmes. These include speaker events, concerts, theatre outings, quizzes, debates, visits to places of interest, walks and trips abroad. These provide a great social network and the opportunity to participate in and support our humanitarian and heritage projects.

BBUK's hugely successful programme of online talks, established at the beginning of lockdown in March 2020, carries on throughout 2024 and continues to attract a large number of attendees around the world. The European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage, run by a team of volunteers, is a mainstay of our calendar.

B'nai B'rith UK's Bureau of International Affairs engages with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, the Department for International Development, and foreign embassies and NGOs on behalf of Jewish people internationally and to support Israel. More widely, we promote the human rights of minority groups.

We sponsor a Foodbank and Distribution Centre in the southern Israeli development town of Qiryat Gat, plus an after-school activity club for children.

We also support a humanitarian medical programme for elderly Jews and righteous gentiles in Kyiv, Ukraine and a shoe programme for a children's orphanage in Odesa, now relocated to Romania because of the war in Ukraine. If you wish to donate to our projects by SmartGiving, details are on our website www.bnaibrithuk.org/donate, or you can do so by bank transfer using the following details:

EUROPEAN DAYS OF JEWISH CULTURE AND HERITAGE (EDJCH) 2024:

UNITED KINGDOM

For this year's heritage activities, B'nai B'rith UK's European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage (EDJCH) team has once again created this online booklet, which will include both in-person and virtual events, talks, open days, exhibitions and guided walks.

Many sites are open to the public in person, while others are still running online events. We are thrilled to have such a large number of organisations, synagogues and walking guides taking part in our heritage activities this year, with some holding more than one event. There is a good mixture of in-person and virtual events, with many venues welcoming back visitors with open arms.

Initiated by the B'nai B'rith Lodge in Strasbourg, the EDJCH rapidly spread across Europe and celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2019. It is organised by a partnership between B'nai B'rith Europe, the European Council of Jewish Communities and the Spanish Jewry Network and is part of the Council of Europe's project 'Europe - A Common Heritage'. As a result of the EDJCH, the European Route of Jewish Heritage has evolved and is now one of the major cultural routes of Europe.

For 2024, the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage will run from 1st September to 31st December inclusive. The National Heritage Open Days will run from 6th to 15th September this year, which ties in nicely with our own dates.

Our theme for 2024 will be 'Family', which lends itself to a huge range of potential events, whether real or virtual. All of these interpretations offer a wealth of opportunities for open days, talks, virtual guided walks and online exhibitions.

Whether participating online or in person,

Everyone is Welcome!

MUSIC FOR THE YOUNG SOUL

The panellists will discuss how we should be educating the next generation of musicians in the UK – both within the Jewish community and in the country at large.

Many, if not most schools, struggle to deliver the curriculum. Music is rarely a top priority for them whether that be classroom teaching or one-to-one instrumental teaching. Is it only children from wealthy families that will be able to get a musical education in the future? How do we inspire the next generation to become the musicians of tomorrow?

Chaired by renowned composer & conductor, Malcolm Singer.

15 DECEMBER 2024 AT 8PM

The Chair

Malcolm Singer

Well-known composer, conductor and educationalist. Director of Music at The Yehudi Menuhin School 1998 – 2017, Musical Director of the Zemel Choir 1983 -1993. Worth Park History Society

Public Park. Worth Park was the formal gardens of Worth Park House, the Sussex Estate of Sir Francis Montefiore with a Visitor Centre. In-Person Only. Worth Park is a 40 acre public park on the East side of Crawley, West Sussex. The formal gardens that surrounded Worth Park Mansion and laid out in the 1880's have been restored to the Victorian splendor of yesteryear, creating a unique gem that is enjoyed by many today. The Italianate Terraces, geometric forms and Camellia Corridor, meadow and lake area are all maintained by our excellent garden team and volunteers. The former stables to Worth Park Mansion houses the Visitor Centre where you can find displays on history of the park and the Montefiore family. The former stable complex was built to compliment the mansion. Built in 1882 it is now Grade II listed. James Pulham and Sons laid out the formal features of the garden while in the lake there is a Pulhamite Islet and stonework on the larger island. A Fern Rockery has been restored at the former carriage turning circle to the mansion. The park is open at all times. The Visitor Centre is open at various times. B'nai B'rith UK

Talk. The 'Real' Yentl. Virtual only. In 'A Room of One's Own', Virginia Woolf created an imaginary sister for Shakespeare to ask what life would have been like for an equally talented woman. When considering the Yiddish literary landscape, there's no need to invent a fictional female - Isaac Bashevis Singer's sister Esther Kreitman; the probable role model for his depiction of Yentl, a woman desperate to learn. Dr Aviva Dautch will compare Barbra Streisand and Bashevis depictions of Yentl and the experience of the real woman she was based on. Free. 8pm to 9pm. Contact: events@bnaibrithuk.org 07588 087324

Exhibition. 'Threads through time', an exhibition by Lis Mann. In-person Only. 'Threads through time' is an exhibition of memory works by artist Lis Mann, which tell her personal story of being a Jewish refugee child from Nazi-occupied Austria. Lis uses textiles combined with other materials to make visual stories and experiences that are partial, too painful or complex for words. Through her art she confronts past and present, piecing together fragmented memories and feelings. To stitch is to bind patches of fabric together, to mend, to renew. 'Threads through time' is Lis' individual story of self-making, but her works echo other refugee stories, past and present, and suggest wider questions about exile and belonging today. From September, visitors to Upton House will also see displays about Upton's former owner, 2nd Viscount Bearsted, Walter Samuel, who along with other prominent Anglo-Jews played a leading role in efforts to rescue Jewish refugees from Nazi persecution. Grade II Listed Building. iscount Bearsted, Walter Samuel, bought and remodelled the original 17th-century Warwickshire house in 1927. He purposefully redesigned and extended the honey coloured stone house to best display his fine painting collection and rare 18th-century French and English porcelain. Lady Bearsted concentrated her attention on the gardens and commissioned one of the first professional female garden designers, Kitty Lloyd Jones to improve them for the family's pleasure and leisure time. The topography is distinctive with steep terraces parallel to the house tumbling down the Ice Age valley. Strawberry Hill House & Garden Exhibition. Hélène Binet: Discovering Jewish Country Houses. In-person Only. Hélène Binet (b.1959) is one of the world's leading photographers. This exhibition showcases a new body of work, capturing an extraordinary group of houses, owned, built or renovated by Jews. The display of more than 20 works takes as its inspiration the new book The Jewish Country Houses (edited by Juliet Carey and Abigail Green, Profile Books, 2024), which sheds new light on a previously overlooked category of country houses owned, renovated, and at times built by Jews and individuals of Jewish descent. Binet was commissioned to create photographic essays about nine houses, two mausoleums and a synagogue explored, to capture their extraordinary and varied exteriors, gardens and interiors. The properties featured encompass a remarkable stylistic range, from the playful historicism of Waddesdon Manor in Buckinghamshire and the gothic castle of Strawberry Hill House in Twickenham to a reinvention of an ancient Greek villa with Villa Kérylos on the Côte d'Azur and the modernist masterpiece that is the Villa Tugendhat in the Czech city of Brno. Some of the houses are celebrated tourist destinations, others are little known. Jewish country houses tell a more complex story of prejudice and integration, difference and connection. Many had spectacular art collections and gardens. Some were stages for lavish entertaining, while others provided inspiration to the European avant garde. A few are now museums of international importance; many more are hidden treasures: all were beloved homes that bear witness to the remarkable achievements of newly emancipated Jews across Europe - and to a dream of belonging that mostly came to a brutal end with the Holocaust. Binet's photographs, offer an alternative to familiar, celebratory conventions of country-house photography, and help to establish these places as sites of Jewish memory. A number of families included several family members who served at the same time, such as the Nathan family in Edinburgh in 1915 (3 brothers, an uncle and 12 cousins). Examples from First World War exemption tribunal files show how some families feared the conscription of their main breadwinners. They will look at letters home from Scottish Jewish soldiers, including Second World War prisoners of the Japanese and try to imagine how their families felt. Wartime bombing on a Glasgow street in 1941 wiped out a number of Jewish families. They will also look at family casualties during the Second World War through the deaths announcements of the Jewish Echo newspaper. British participation in the European Days of Jewish Culture and Heritage is organised by B'nai B'rith UK, part of B'nai B'rith International, which was founded in New York in 1843 and in 2023 celebrated its 180th anniversary.

Today, it is one of the largest Jewish volunteer organisations active in humanitarian, human rights and cultural and charitable work in 59 countries, many of which are affiliated to B'nai B'rith Europe.

Launched in 1996 by the B'nai B'rith Lodge in Strasbourg, the Open Days became pan-European in 2000 and are now under the aegis of the European Association for the Preservation and Promotion of Jewish Culture and Heritage (AEPJ), with the participation of 31 countries.

In 2024, B'nai B'rith UK would like to acknowledge the contribution of the Survey of the Jewish Built Heritage (SJBH) and members of B'nai B'rith UK, for their generous support, as well as our participants who are making these Open Days, talks, guided walks and events, whether real or virtual, possible by opening their buildings to the public and/or arranging events.

For further information about Jewish Heritage Days, both here and on the Continent, please contact B'nai B'rith UK.
